

ROMULUS AND REMUS a re-telling

By _____

Create your picture story below... Don't forget to use speech bubbles and captions to help drive the plot.

Romulus and Remus were sent down a river as infants, abandoned by their parents.

They were found by a female wolf who took them in and cared for them.

When they were older they were found by a old shepherd

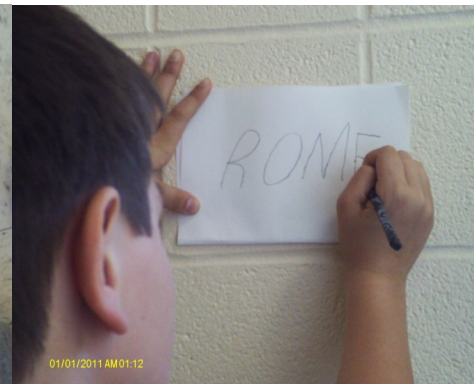

When they were adults they decided to build a city where the wolf found them but they argued about where to put it.

Romulus killed Remus

Romulus died

Romulus then named the city after himself. He named the city Rome.

